ABOUT NAAC

National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) is an autonomous body established and funded by the University Grant Commission (UGC) of India to assess and accredit institutions of Higher education in the country. To address the issues of quality, the National policy on Education (1968) and the Plan of Action (POA-1992) advocated the establishment of an independent national accreditation body. Consequently the NAAC was established in 1994. NAAC evaluates institutions for the its performance related to the educational processes and outcomes, curriculum coverage, teaching-learning processes, faculty research, infrastructure, learning resources, organisation, governance, financial well being and student services

Benefits of NAAC Accreditation

- ◆ NAAC accreditation helps higher institutions get know its strength, weaknesses and opportunities through an infirmed review process.
- ◆ NAAC identifies the internal areas of planning and resource allocation.
- ◆ Collegiality on the campus.
- ◆ New sense of direction and identity for institutions.
- ◆ NAAC Grade/Assessment will help educational institutes to initiate modern or innovative methods of the pedagogy.
- ◆ NAAC accreditation or grade of a higher learning institute will help the student to figure out all the details about the institute such as quality of education, research output, teaching learning, infrastructure etc.
- ◆ NAAC accreditation will initiate Intra and Inter-Institutional interaction.

7 CRITERIA OF NAAC

There are 7 Assessment criteria of the NAAC which are as follows

- ◆ Curricular Aspects
- ◆ Teaching learning and evaluation
- ◆ Research, Consultancy and Extension
- ◆ Infrastructure and Learning resources
- ◆ Student Support and Progression
- ◆ Governance, Leadership & Management
- ◆ Innovations and Best Practices
